

April 11, 2011

We are pleased to announce that effective August 15, 2011, Lucy Flesch, Greg Michalski, and Wen-wen Tung will be promoted to the rank of Associate Professor, and Matt Huber will be promoted to Full Professor.

Congratulations to all of the candidates and the PAC members for their hard work!

EAS AREA COMMITTEE REPRESENTATIVE

Jeff Trapp has been nominated and elected to serve as the EAS committee member on the COS Area Committee for a two-year term starting August 1, 2011.

AGU FELLOW

Paul B. Shepson has been elected a Fellow of the American Geophysical Union. Only one in a thousand members is elected to Fellowship each year. He will be honored at the December 2011 Fall AGU Meeting in San Francisco.

FEUSTEL SPACE LAUNCH NEW LAUNCH DATE

NASA announced that the April 19th space launch date has changed to April 29th (you can find the article here). The details regarding a possible "launch" party will be forthcoming as the date gets closer.

UPCOMING MINI-WORKSHOP: OVERVIEW OF THE NSF CAREER PROGRAM

Tuesday, May 3rd, 2011
11:30 a.m. – 1:00 p.m.
Stewart Center, Room 310

The Office of the Vice President for Research is hosting a mini-workshop for untenured faculty in all disciplines who are interested in developing a proposal for the NSF CAREER competition. Read more...

UPCOMING MEETINGS

Monday, April 11

- Alumni & Corporate Relations Committee, CIVL 2201 (1 p.m.)

Tuesday, April 12

- Undergrad Committee, CIVL 2201 (2:30 p.m.)
- COS Faculty Meeting, LWSN 3102A/B (3:30 p.m.)

Friday, April 15

- Graduate Committee, CIVL 2173 (1:30 p.m.)

Monday, April 18

- EAS Faculty Meeting, CIVL 3201 (11:30 a.m.)

EAS SEMINAR

Thursday, April 14, at 3:30 p.m. in CIVL 1252:
"Aerosols: Smoke and Mirrors of the Climate System." Harshvardhan, EAS, Purdue

Refreshments at 3 p.m. in CIVL 2201

For more information, see the EAS online calendar.

UPCOMING DEFENSES

Tuesday, April 12, at 10 a.m. in CIVL 2201:
"Urbanization Impacts on Mesoscale Rainfall and Severe Weather." PhD final exam for Ming Lei; Major Advisor: Dev Niyogi

Thursday, April 14, at 10 a.m. in CIVL 2201:
"Improving a Process-based Biogeochemistry Model using an Atmospheric Transport Chemistry Model and In-Situ and Remotely-sensed Terrestrial and Atmospheric Data." PhD defense for Jinyun Tang; Major Advisor: Qianlai Zhuang

Friday, April 15, at 2 p.m. in CIVL 2201:
"Petrographic, Mineralogical, and Geochemical Evidence of Diagenesis in the Eau Claire Formation: Implications for Sealing Capability in a Carbon Dioxide Sequestration System." MS defense for Ryan Neufelder; Major Advisor: Brenda Bowen

Monday, April 18, at 9:30 a.m. in CIVL 2201:
"Modeling Future Residential Energy Demand under Changing Climate: A Study on Space Heating." MS defense for Advait Godbole; Major Co-advisors: Matthew Huber and Kevin Gurney

RECENT PRESENTATIONS

Zhuang, Q., X. Lu, M. Chen and J. Tang, Using AmeriFlux and satellite data to improve the quantification of carbon and water dynamics of terrestrial ecosystems in the conterminous US, AmeriFlux Science Meeting and 3rd NACP All-investigators Meeting, January 31-February 4, 2011, New Orleans, LA.

Matt Huber gave a talk to the Geological Sciences Department at Brown University, March 15: "Chasing thermostats, amplifiers, rectifiers, and capacitors through past warm climates--trying to find the important missing physics in climate models."

Matt Huber gave an invited keynote presentation at the Royal Netherlands National Academy of Arts and Sciences, at a special meeting on Estimating Climate Sensitivity from Paleoclimate Records, Amsterdam, the Netherlands, March 29, "Some constraints on sensitivity from Paleogene climate records."

During the week of March 28, PhD student, Elifuraha Saria, was in Europe at the Institute of Geographic National (ENSG, IGN), Paris, France, for training on the combination of different geodetic techniques in the realization of Africa Reference Frame. April 4-8 he attended the European Geoscience Union meeting in Vienna, Austria and presented a poster entitled, "A new velocity field for Africa from combined GPS and DORIS solutions: Contribution to AFREF(Africa Reference Frame)" See abstract...

Laura Pyrak-Nolte chaired a session on Experimental Methods in Porous Media and gave a presentation entitled, "Understanding the effect of films on the capillary pressure - saturation hysteresis for a single pore throat" at the Interpore 2011 - 3rd International Conference on Porous Media in Bordeaux, France, March 29-31, 2011.

On Friday, April 1, Jennifer Haase presented an invited seminar at the Bureau of Mines, in Port-au-Prince, Haiti, entitled, "Utilisation des reseaux sismologiques pour determiner l'alea sismique" The Use of Seismic Networks for Understanding Seismic Hazard. The Bureau of Mines is the organization in Haiti responsible for installing and monitoring seismic activity in Haiti, following the 2010 earthquake.

Zhuang, Q., J. M. Melillo, D. Kicklighter, J. Reilly, A. Sokolov, Paltsev, A. Shvidenko, N. Tchebakova, E. Parfenova, A. Peregon, A. Sirin, S. Maksyutov, and G. Zhou, Changes of land use and land cover, biogeochemistry, and their feedbacks to climate in northern Eurasia, EGU Annual Meeting, 3-8 April, Vienna, Austria.

RECENT RESEARCH ACTIVITIES

Professor Qianlai Zhuang organized and hosted a NASA LCLUC workshop "Changes of Land Cover and Land Use and Greenhouse Gas Emissions in Northern Eurasia: Impacts on Human Adaptation and Quality of Life at Regional and Global Scales" in the International Institute for Applied Systems Analysis, Laxenburg, Austria, on April 8, 2011.

Prof. Qianlai Zhuang organized and hosted a NSF collaborative project entitled, "Impact of Permafrost Degradation on Carbon and Water in Boreal Ecosystems" meeting on March 9-12, 2011, Boulder, Colorado. Graduate students Yueyang Jiang and Xiaoliang Lu also attended and presented their research at the meeting.

Upon invitation, Professor Qianlai Zhuang attended the NSF Workshop of An Integrated Network for Terrestrial Ecosystem Research on Feedbacks to the Atmosphere and Climate (INTERFACE): Linking experimentalists, ecosystem modelers, and Earth system modelers, Captiva Island, Florida, February 28-March 3, 2010.

IMPORTANT NOTICE ABOUT THIS NEWSLETTER

This newsletter will now be used as the primary information source for current and upcoming events, announcements, awards, grant opportunities, and other happenings in our department and around campus. Active links to additional information will be provided as needed. Individual email announcements will no longer be sent unless the content is time-sensitive. We will continue to include our publications, presentations and other recent news items as well. Those using paper copies of the newsletter should go to our newsletter archive on the EAS website at www.purdue.edu/eas/ and Click on News to access active links as needed. Material for inclusion in the newsletter should be submitted to Gina Richey (grichey@purdue.edu) by Friday noon of each week for inclusion in the Monday issue. If it is in the newsletter, we assume you know about it and no other reminders are needed.

For answers to common technology questions and the latest updates from the EAS Technology Support staff, please visit http://www.purdue.edu/eas/info\_tech/index.php.

Purdue Postdoctoral Association

Purdue Postdoctoral Association wants to give you the warmest welcome!

We want to inform you about our initiative in Campus:

- Improvement the postdoctoral experience at Purdue
- Facilitates postdoctoral career development
- Fosters professional and social interaction among Purdue postdocs and other Purdue scholars and staff
- Increases awareness of the contributions of Purdue postdocs to Purdue University and the scientific body in general.

PPDA email list is our primary communication channel and is used for official news. A newsletter is sent at least once per month with updates regarding the PPDA.
